Tuesday Morning, Jan. 1, 1859.

NEW GROCERY STOCK.—Read Hogley's advertisement and you will see that he is ready for any kind of an offer that ends in cash, for any article in the Grocery and Provision line.

ALL READY.—Read Ned. Edger's advertisement, all you who wish to refresh the fancy man, to exercise in rolling Nine-Pins, playing Billiards, and all house-keepers wishing to supply themselves with Oysters, or choice Gravies.

BETTER THAN SLEIGHING.—The roads appeared to be prepared on purpose for the comfort of Members in getting to Lansing. Never was there better wheeling—the best of sleighing could not excel it.

ALMOST A FEE.—About ten o'clock on Friday night, the N. E. chimney of the Capital burned out, and the blazing coal fell in a shower of fire upon the roof. The fire was discovered by Hon. John McKinney, and by his exertions, and those of Messrs. Jones, Holmes and others, was prevented from doing much damage.

LANSING TO BE LIVELY.—What, with the Legislature in session, the Supreme Court, a State Medical Convention, a State Convention of Publishers and Editors, and the presence of a numerous Religious representative body, to say nothing of an innumerable force of outsiders and lobbyists, Lansing bids fair to be lively for six weeks to come.

A SIGN.—The large number of persons who crowd around the Legislature at its organization to secure places, to the classes which most of them belong, show the fact well known here-before, that hard times are pressing heavily upon many of our citizens. Employment is scarce, and money is still more so, and no wonder that many worthy and industrious men need help—it is only a pity that all such cannot be provided for.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH EDIFICE.—The Episcopal Church and Society in Lansing, are now erecting an edifice on Washington Avenue, a few blocks north of the State Office. The walls are already in position, and the workmen are busy at the work of framing. This enterprise has been taken hold of with zeal, and will end doubtless in receiving a substantial and permanent building for the worshiping place of that denomination.

OKEMOS FLOURING MILL.—The new Flouring Mill at Okemos, erected by E. Walker Esq., is now in complete and successful running order. The flour, which we have tried and proved, is of the first quality.

The mill gearing was made by Thompsons & Co., of Lansing, and was put up and set in running order by W. D. Brown, of Grand Ledge.— Lansing housekeepers will find this Mill of great convenience to them.

ACCIDENT.—Harvey L. Baker, Esq., one of the contractors in the House of Correction, on Saturday last, came very near having all of his fingers on his left hand sawed off. He was assisting at a barbershop, and while doing so his hand came in contact with the saw. His middle finger was taken off by Dr. Shrank. The others though badly torn, it was hoped, would be restored.—Journal.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon last, David Mosely, an employee in his father's Grist Mill, at the lower town, was frightfully, and at one time it was feared fatally, injured.
He was owing some portions of the machinery while the mill was in motion, and while doing so his coat sleeve was first caught in the gearing, and in attempting to extricate it, his clothes became more involved, and he was carried over a shaft and between it and a beam, and in such a manner as to tear open his abdomen in a shocking manner, breaking his broad bones and dislocating his shoulders. How he escaped with life is almost a miracle. He was attended by Dr.
Bare. On Monday it was thought he was in a fair way to recover.—Journal.

CANE PRESENTATION.—The Clerks in the Auditor General's Department, presented to Col. Jones, on retiring from office at the close of the year, a beautiful ebony Cane, as a token of their respect and esteem. In this instance, the gift was the token of no conventional or commonplace feeling, but was what it purported to be, a token of the general sentiments of the givers, to the recipient. Four years of uninterrupted good feeling between the head of the department and the employees, bear evidence to the admirable personal qualities of the former, and of the correct conduct, ability and faithfulness of the latter.

The Cane has a mounted gold head, and a silver terrel, ending in a steel tip. It is from the establishment of Geo. Doty, in Detroit, and bears the following inscription:

"Presented to the Clerks of his Department, Dec. 31st 1858. Whitney Jones, Auditor General, Michigan, from Jan. 1st 1858, to Jan. 1st 1859."

ATLON'S AMERICAN ALMANAC for 1859 is now ready for delivery, gratis, at R. Thayer & Co.'s, who are happy to supply all that our city for them. Every family should have and keep this book. It is worth having. Comprising much general information of great value; it gives the best instruction for the cure of prevalent complaints, that we can get anywhere. Its anecdotes alone are worth a bushel of wheat, and its medical advice is sometimes worth to the sick, the wheat's weight in gold. Many of the medical adages are trash, but this is solid metal—its calculations are made purposely for this latitude and are therefore correct. Call and get an Ave's Almanac, and when got, keep it.

OVED.

In the township of Marcellus, near Okemos, of Michigan Scarlet Fever, within six hours after the attack, Roman, only son of Gyo. Voro, that place, in the 13th year of his age.

In this bereavement the fondest hopes have been blasted. Over a child of a more delicate constitution, parent watched many long years, until the expectation was fixed that he would live to be their support in declining age. Ro-matty was a member of the first Sabbath School in Okemos, of which he was an earnest and interested member at death. But a few days before his decease he expressed his regret that the School was vacated for the winter. Parents may say.

In life there went my morning star, But now that death has stolen thy light

Alas! there slumpest dead and fair, Like the pale beam that weeps at night.

As OLD PRINTER GONE.—The Pontiac Gazette says that Cyrus Carrier, an aged type, who had worked in that village, more or less, for the past five years, died at the Ogle House in that village, on Saturday morning about 8 o'clock.

His last day's work was at the Jacksonian of Oak, on Saturday last.

The kind old man is at rest. "Death has locked up his form, and put it to sleep in the mould."

DANCING TO LEARN—NOT LEARNING TO DANCE.— A dance was got up in Bellevue, Eaton Co., last week, the proceeds of which go to pay for the Union School house.

PA.

A CRASH.—The President's Message created a decided sensation at Havana.

AT THE AGES.—Ryan is pitching into the weather again in the Paw Paw True Northern.

SENTENCED.—Samuel Scott, found guilty of the murder of William McDonald, in Detroit, was sentenced on Monday, five years to the State Prison.

MUSICAL.—We are pleased to learn that Prof.
E. M. Foote is intending to visit this place during the present month, with his Concert Troop. Our citizens may prepare for a rich treasure.

TIME IN KALAMAZOO COUNTY.—The dwelling house of David Ingerson, Jr., of Comstock, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon, Dec. 27, loss $1,000—and on the same day the million dollar store of W. Morse, Jr., of Kalamazoo, was damaged to the amount of $500.

BUSINESS OF THE TIMES OF ORIGIN.—The entire materials of the Detroit Tribune office, in all its departments, were destroyed by fire on New Year's eve. The loss is very heavy, and the insurance is $21,000. This is said to be the third time that Mr. Barnes has been burned out.

DEVOTION TO DEITY.—The Sanjour Jeffersonian says: On Saturday last a lad used some seven goose-soup on Mr. John Wilson, of Lexington, who was severely burned by his clothes taking fire, that he survived but a few hours. He with some other children were left playing in a shanty a short distance from the house, where there was a fire-burning. The crisis of the boy afterwards the creation of friends, and Mr. Wilson was considerably burned in his endeavor to extinguish the flames.
